We Ask for Forgiveness

Background Focus

Identifying ourselves as sinners is not easy, but it is the honest truth. With this truth comes the humble realization that no one—not even the person I call me, myself, and I—is perfect. This truth can be humbly liberating, especially when we realize that God still loves us and wants to forgive us. As sinners, our imperfect love is met by perfect love. We are forgiven!

The expansion of the definition of sin presented in this lesson is very important and includes the distinction between serious sin (mortal sin), which completely breaks our relationship with God, and less-serious sin (venial sin), which nonetheless harms our relationship with God and others.

In this lesson, the truth of sinfulness and forgiveness is gradually opened up to your child through the account of the sinful woman who poured her perfume and her tears over Jesus' feet.

Go (10 minutes)

Opening Prayer

- Invite your child to turn to page 1 in the chapter 5 activity booklet and locate the prayer on the page.
- Begin prayer by making the Sign of the Cross, then saying, "Let us remember that we are in the holy presence of God." Allow about 10 seconds of silence.
- Read the prayer in the activity booklet. Invite your child to say "Amen," and then close with another Sign of the Cross. Have your child put the activity booklet away for now.

Engage Activity

- Ask your child to think about everything they own—their clothes, their toys, their books, their electronic devices. Have them share what their most treasured possession is and where they keep it. Record their answers on a piece of paper.
- Explain that some people keep their most treasured possessions at the bank, in a special box. Continue with the following points:
  - People sometimes keep their jewelry at the bank so the jewelry will be safe at all times.
  - People sometimes keep important papers at the bank, so that they will not be lost or burned up in a fire.
  - Other people keep special boxes at home for their most treasured possessions.
- Tell your child that today they will learn about a woman who was so sorry for her sins that she gave her most precious possession to Jesus.
- Ask your child if they would be willing to give their most precious possession to Jesus. Remind them that Jesus does not really want or need what we have. Explain that he wants us to love God, ourselves, and others. Tell the children that Jesus wants us to be truly sorry, to not sin again, to do our penance, and to follow his command of love.

Seek (30 minutes)

Featured Story

- Invite your child to find Luke 7:36–50 in The Catholic Children's Bible (page 1595).
- Direct your child to turn the page to the Featured Story on page 1596 and place an "I found it!" sticker on the page. Tell them that the words between the leaves on the page are a shortened version of the Scripture story on the previous page.
- Ask your child what they think the woman in the artwork on pages 1596–1597 is doing.
- Invite your child to read the title of the Featured Story. Explain that we do not know who the woman is, or what her name is, but she could have been Mary Magdalene, the woman who saw the Risen Jesus in the garden. Recall that you read the account of Mary Magdalene and the Risen Jesus in the first chapter.

- Read the Bible story aloud (either the short version on page 1596 or the longer version, Luke 7:36–50, on the previous page). Then ask several questions to check for comprehension, such as these:
  - Where was Jesus in this story? (eating at the house of a Pharisee)
  - Who came in with a special alabaster jar? (a woman)
  - What was in the jar? (perfume)
  - What was the woman doing at first? (crying and wetting Jesus' feet with her tears)
  - What did the woman do next? (She dried his feet with her hair, kissed them, and poured the perfume on them.)
  - What did she show by doing this? (her great love)
  - What did Jesus say to her? ("Your sins are forgiven.")
- Explain that like the woman in the story, we have room in our hearts for two things: love and sin. Remind your child that sin is anything we think, say, or do that goes against God's Law, especially the commandment of love. The more love we have, the less room we have for sin. The more sin we have—the more meanness and selfishness—the less room we have for love. When we are forgiven in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we have more room for love.
- Have your child turn to page 2 in the activity booklet and complete the activity with their Bible open. Answers: "In that town was a woman who lived a sinful life. She heard that Jesus was eating in the Pharisee's house, so she brought an alabaster jar full of perfume and stood behind Jesus, by his feet, crying and wetting his feet with her tears. Then she dried his feet with her hair, kissed them, and poured the perfume on them. [Jesus said] 'The great love she has shown proves that her many sins have been forgiven. . . .' Then Jesus said to the woman, 'Your sins are forgiven.'"

Understand It!

- Read aloud Understand It! on page 1597, or invite your child to read it.
- Invite your child to summarize what they just heard, asking key questions about the reading to check for comprehension.
- Review these key points:
  - Jesus is a friend to sinners and forgives them.
  - This woman was sorry for her sins. She had true contrition, true sorrow for her sins.
  - She showed her sorrow and love with her tears, kisses, and gift of perfume.
  - Jesus forgave this woman's sins.

Live It!

- Invite your child to read Live It! on page 1597 or read it aloud yourself.
- Explain that the Jesus Prayer can be said anytime or in any place, and that some people carry a circle of ten beads with them, called "Jesus beads," so that they can move their fingers from bead to bead as they pray.
- You may want to ask your child to say the Jesus Prayer with you now, ten times, using their fingers as "beads."
- Assure your child that Jesus will always forgive them if they are sorry.

Tell It!

- Ask your child to look at the images in Tell It! on page 1597.
- Invite your child to use the images to retell the Bible reading as best they can.
- Have your child use some of the smaller stickers to mark parts of the Featured Story pages that capture their interest. Remind them to save enough stickers to use on the remaining chapters.

Core Learning Activity

A Treasure Box of Love

- Remind your child that the sinful woman gave her greatest treasure to Jesus to show her sorrow and love. Explain that Jesus forgave her sins, not because she gave her treasure, but because she had great love. Help your child understand that her love was a greater treasure than her perfume. Tell your child that we too can have the great treasure of love and offer this love to Jesus by doing good things for others.
- Give your child a tissue box, one-half of an index card, a small envelope, and seven paper "jewels". Cut out the "jewels" ahead of time. Each should be about 2 inches long or about 2 inches in diameter. Of the seven jewels, two should be "diamonds" (a diamond shape cut from white paper), two should be "rubies" (a round shape cut from red paper), two should be "turquoise stones" (an oval shape cut from turquoise paper), and one should be a "gold bar" (a rectangle cut from gold or yellow paper). Ask your child to write their name on the envelope, and to keep the paper jewels in the envelope.
- Ask your child to write "My Treasure Box" on the one-half index card. This should be taped to the front of the tissue box.
- Explain that each paper jewel represents a real jewel. Tell your child that there are seven of them, one for each day of the week. Name each jewel with a day of the week. Ask your child, starting today, to write something good that they did for someone else on a jewel each day. (Suggestions: "I helped clear the table without being asked"; "I read a storybook to my baby cousin.") Explain that they may make more jewels if they want to put more "treasure" into their boxes.
- Invite your child to give examples of good actions they might write on their jewels. Encourage your child to be alert to small things they can do to help others. Explain that love is often expressed in small and helpful ways.
- Remind your child that the more we love, the less room we have for sin in our hearts. Tell them that Jesus will always forgive our sins if we ask him.

X Find (20 minutes)

God's Treasure of Forgiveness

- Explain that the sinful woman gave her greatest treasure—her love—to Jesus, so he forgave her all of her sins. Recall that sin is doing something that is against love. Remind your child that sin is a thought, word, or action that goes against God's Law, especially the commandment of love.
- Tell your child that there are two kinds of sin: mortal sin and venial sin. Write both of these terms on a piece of paper, leaving space for examples to come.
- Introduce the definition of mortal sin, giving examples:
  - Mortal sin is a serious sin, committed on purpose, that completely breaks our loving relationship with God. Mortal sin is a serious sin against the Ten Commandments and against God's Law of Love. Mortal sin is a sin like murder. (Write this on the paper.) We sin by taking another's life. Or, we can sin against God by refusing to worship him as he deserves. We can refuse to go to Mass on Sunday or on Holy Days of Obligation. (Write this on the paper. The Holy Days of Obligation can be found on page 1991 in The Catholic Children's Bible.)
  - Mortal sin cannot be committed by accident. It is very serious. To commit a mortal sin, you must first know it is a mortal and serious sin, you must want to do it, and you must freely do it.
  - If we commit a mortal sin and are sorry for it afterward, we must go to confession as soon as possible. We have broken our loving relationship with God, and we must ask forgiveness.
- Introduce the definition of venial sin by explaining that a venial sin is a less serious sin that weakens, but does not completely break, our loving relationship with God.

- Expand on this definition with the following explanation and examples:
  - Venial sin cannot be committed by accident. We must know something is a sin, must want to do it, and then do it freely. Venial sins are the kinds of sin that we might commit in our everyday lives. Some examples are: talking back to our parents and being sassy and rude, fighting with our brothers and sisters, cheating on a test, taking something that does not belong to us. (Write these on the paper and others that may apply to your child.)
  - Even though venial sin is "less serious," we want to avoid it, because we do not want to harm our loving relationship with God or others the least little bit.
- Explain that venial sin is something that we can confess in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and we can ask God to forgive us. The sacrament helps us to be better and to follow Jesus more closely.
- Tell your child that there are other ways that venial sin is forgiven. We can also ask God to forgive us at the beginning of every Mass, in the Penitential Act. We can ask God to forgive us in our private prayer. Emphasize that the best way to receive God's forgiveness is in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, because the grace we receive from this sacrament helps us to grow in God's love.
- Invite your child to turn to page 3 in the activity booklet and complete the activity. Answers:
  1. freely, 2. as soon as possible, 3. weakens, 4. Reconciliation, 5. grace

Lesson Wrap-Up

- Invite your child to think back over all of the different things they did in this lesson, and invite them to share some of the key things they learned.
- Take some time to get input, and write their answers on the paper.
- Ensure that the following points are made, write them on the paper, and circle them:
  - God will forgive our sins if we are truly sorry.
  - We have more room for love when we are forgiven in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
  - There is a difference between mortal (serious) sin and venial (less serious) sin.
- Ask your child to place the chapter 5 sticker in the correct circle on their treasure map.

Closing Prayer

- Begin prayer by making the Sign of the Cross, then saying, "Let us remember that we are in the holy presence of God," followed by a few seconds of silence.
- Invite your child to open the Bible to Romans 12:21 (page 1786). Invite your child to read this verse. Remind your child to conquer evil with good by working on their treasure box this week.
- End with the "Morning Prayer." Write it on the paper so that you both can pray together. Pray the prayer together, then close with the Sign of the Cross.

Morning Prayer

O my God, I offer you this day

All I do and think and say,

In union with what was done

On earth by Jesus Christ, your Son.

Amen.
